Agile Scrum Master

BUSINESS DERIVATIVES LIMITED

Overview

Agile Scrum Master

The Agile Scrum Master Certification Course gives each delegate a detailed outline of the popularly followed and implemented Agile Scrum project methodology. It is a unique course as it combines both agile methodologies and scrum practices. The course will enable delegates understand project management dynamics with the view to mentor there team to develop projects with clarity, implement them systematically and deliver high quality output for achieving organizational growth. The course will help you become experts on project relevant processes and make you capable of leading your team perform work at its highest productive level. This course will allow you to understand how to identify and align necessary resources to simplify the process of change and adaptation within the organization.

What you will learn:

- Scrum Methodologies to apply best practices vital for attaining the maximum value for your organization.
- Become proficient in Agile principles and Scrum methods and their applications at workplace.
- Facilitate daily scrums, user stories, sprint planning, and sprint reviews.
- Implement distributed Scrum workflow for teams spread across various geographical locations.
- Grow into an Agile Scrum Master role with any organization implementing Agile Scrum methodologies.

Course Duration: 2 days

Certification: BCS-EXIN Practitioner Certificate in Agile Scrum Master

Target Audience: Team Leaders, Project Managers, Members of Scrum teams such as developers, Scrum Masters, and product owners, Teams transitioning to Scrum, any Professionals intending to pursue the Scrum Master certification.

Business Derivatives Ltd is an accredited examination/training provider for British Computer Society (BCS).